Cleaning the Squawker.
Little Marjorie was running down the street, blowing a toy balloon, when she slipped and fell prostrate in the mud. "Hoo, hoo, hoo!" she cried insistently. "Now my squawker is all dirty." Never mind, dearie," coaxed a kind old lady who happened to be passing. "We'll soon make that all right again." And with her nice, clean hands she helped the dear old soul carefully wiped the little girl's mouth—judge.

Ways to Truth.
There are two ways of reaching truth—by reasoning it and by feeling it out. All the profoundest truths are felt out. The deep glances into truth are got by love. Love is man, that is the best way of understanding him.
Feel a truth, that is the only way of comprehending it.—F. W. Robertson uine bargain. Phone 674. 157-4pHow Fear Paralyzes.

Poor ties our hands, lame us and brings our minds, so that we do nothing lest we make mistakes. Pessimism in fear carried to the last degree and the pessimist is not satisfied with stopping his own activity, but tries to prevent others from doing anything because he sees all the dark side of life and none of the bright side—Exchange.Land Constantly in Motion.
Most people know in a general way that large portions of the United States have in the past been covered by ice, but it is perhaps not as generally known that the continent is now rising in some places and sinking in others. There is every reason to believe that minor movements of the land are constantly taking place.Real Work Means Production.
Real work consists of producing something. No matter what it is, whether splitting fence posts or rolling barrels from the point where they are not wanted to the point where they are, its qualification lies in the fact that something is done for which man will be the better.Explained.
The men who have "money to burn" are usually the ones who are the most careless in the matter of keeping up payments on their fire insurance.— Philadelphia Inquirer.Proficient.
A youthful and boisterous bride received the aged grandmother of the bride last week. When asked if she could cook, she replied with simple modesty, "Not very well, but I know that you bake inside the stove and hold on the outside."—Sunday Bulletin.Thinking at Leisure.
Mrs. Jewish says that it is well to do up again no man good enough for her hand until he has shown his true colors.
